A Wish

Maybe it is pointless to wish for lasting peace
For all mankind to lay down arms, for all fighting to cease.

I could despair of seeing, peace throughout the land
No longer hearing talk of war, blood mixed with desert sand.

We do not have the tolerance for cultures not our own
Seeds fly on an ill wind, from beds where they are sown.

Hope lies in a child's heart, not yet turned to stone
A mind free of prejudice, a child not alone.

If all children of the world held each other's hand
They could do what we could not - make a Brotherhood of Man.
